

Insight: The 5–10 Cr population group has the highest count for both genders, with males slightly outnumbering females. As population size increases beyond 10 Cr, the gender distribution remains close, but smaller groups (<2 Cr) show a much lower population representation.